God's Earth: Too Big to Fail?

An Eco-Justice Conversation among Faith, Science & Culture

August 31 - September 3

Highlands Camp and Retreat Center, Allenspark, Colorado

Explore the wonders of God's creation in the Rocky Mountains through worship, workshops, field trips, dialogue, fellowship, and Sabbath. This educational and spiritually enriching event will explore issues of environmental justice and how people of faith are to respond. This exploration will be guided by theologians, agriculturalists, and scientists while attempting to answer, "Is God's earth too big to fail?"

We look forward to worshipping our Creator together and having you as a conversation partner. For more information, including details regarding excellent workshop opportunities, pre-conference field trips, and the beauty of Highlands, please visit the conference blog and follow the directional categories. See you in Colorado!
